

ADVANCED WELDING (WEB)

Course Description –

Continuing from the beginning welding class, the student learns the many techniques of basic shielded arc and metal arc welding, with most of the class spent doing supervised welding. Though it is based on a basic 8-week premise, this is an open-ended class in which the student may continue practicing various advanced welding methods for several weeks according to their various abilities and needs.